

COSMETIC SCIENCE WORK INTEGRATED LEARNING PROGRAM

Helping you Develop, Analyze and Evaluate

COSMETIC SCIENCE GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

This one-year graduate certificate provides specialized training for careers in the product development, formulation and testing, regulatory and quality aspects of the cosmetic industry.

INDUSTRY SPECIFIC SKILLS

- Apply knowledge of Personal Care Product Regulations
- Review labels
- Perform and report microbiological assays
- Perform skin testing to support claims substantiation
- Operate analytical instrumentation (HPLC, GC, FTIR) according to GLP standards
- Assist in preparation of C of A
- Assist in preparation and development of pigmented products
- Prepare solutions, lotions and creams and assist in development
- Perform stability studies
- Perform literature searches and prepare summaries
- Assist in preparation and review of SOPs
- Assist in communications between team members

OUR STUDENTS

- Have a science degree or college diploma
- Have the ability to work successfully in a collaborative team environment and apply critical thinking to solve problems
- Apply GLP and GMP practices
- Are detail oriented, well organized and able to multi task
- Have excellent communication and presentation skills

HIGHLIGHTS

- Students are available for 4 months of full-time work from September – December
- Simple recruitment process:
 - Email a job description
 - Job posted online to students
 - Receive and review job applications
 - Select and interview candidates
 - Make final hiring decision

100% placement of Cosmetic Science students in work terms during our inaugural year

Find out more about hiring Cosmetic Science work-integrated learning students:

WIL Co-ordinator

Zahra.Hirji@senecacollege.ca
416.491.5050 ext. 33218

Visit us online at: senecacollege.ca/wil/